MY PET ROOSTER

Don Spencer/Terry Murray

Published by Mushroom

"Cock-a-doodle-doo" goes my pet rooster,

"Cock-a-doodle-doo" at break of day.

"Cock-a-doodle-doo" goes my pet rooster,

"Cock-a-doodle-doo - come out and play!"

Sometimes I'm so sleepy that I say,

"Please go away."

But my little rooster keeps on crowing anyway.

"Cock-a-doodle-doo,

Cock-a-doodle-doo, Cock-a-doodle-doo" at break of day.

"Cock-a-doodle-doo" goes my pet rooster,

The moment that the sun begins to rise.

"Cock-a-doodle-doo" goes my pet rooster,

"Cock-a-doodle-doo" you'll hear his cry.

Every morning he stands on his mound,

And makes his sound.

Then he proudly puffs his chest,

And struts around the ground.

"Cock-a-doodle-doo,

Cock-a-doodle-doo, Cock-a-doodle-doo" at break of day.

You don't need an alarm clock,

To make sure you're on time.

You just need a rooster -

Just like mine.

"Cock-a-doodle-doo,

Cock-a-doodle-doo, Cock-a-doodle-doo" at break of day.

"Cock-a-doodle-doo" goes my pet rooster,

Time for you to wake up sleepy head!

"Cock-a-doodle-doo" goes my pet rooster,

A brand new day is here - get out of bed!

All the animals and birds can hear him loud and clear.

Every single day of every year - you'll find him here.

"Cock-a-doodle-doo,

Cock-a-doodle-doo, Cock-a-doodle-doo" at break of day.
