PENGUIN STRUT

Don Spencer

Published by MCA-Gilbey

The Fairy penguin walks in a funny way,
In his suit of black and white.
Well, he looks so posh he could be going
To the royal ball tonight.
And he walks so fast on the slippery ice,
Sometimes he just falls down.
But he jumps straight up and carries on,
Just like a wobbly clown.

CHORUS

Do the Penguin strut.
Do the Fairy penguin strut.
He has little wings but he doesn't fly,
He looks so quaint as he walks by!

The Fairy penguin walks in a funny way,
Why don't you try to do it too?
Put your arms straight down,
Put your hands out flat,
Let your feet just shuffle through.
Then you waddle along up and down,
And you roll from side to side,
Oh, the penguin walks in a funny way,
Just watch him slip and slide.

CHORUS x 2

The Penguin Strut!
