PUSSYCAT IS ON THE PROWL

Don Spencer

Published by Mushroom

Meow, meow

Meow, meow, the pussycat is on the prowl.
Meow, meow, she's creeping round the doorway now.
It's her job to chase all the mice away.
If she don't catch them, they'll eat your cheese.
Now that wouldn't please,
Meow.

Meow, meow, little mouse better run away.
Meow, meow, it's a cat and mouse game we play.

Meow, meow, the pussycat is on the prowl.
Meow, meow, she's creeping down the hallway now.
It's her job to chase all the mice away.
Now if she don't catch them, they'll eat your food.
That would not be good,
Meow.

Meow, meow, little mouse better run away.
Meow, meow, it's a cat and mouse game we play.

Meow, meow, the pussycat is on the prowl.
Meow, meow, she's creeping round the doorway now.
It's her job to chase all the mice away.
If she don't catch them, they'll eat your cheese.
Now that would not please,
Meow.

Meow, meow, little mouse better run away.
Meow, meow, it's a cat and mouse game we play.

Meow, meow, little mouse better run away.
Meow, meow, it's a cat and mouse game we play.
Meow.
