

THE TERRAPIN, THE TORTOISE AND THE TURTLE

Don Spencer/Terry Murray

Published by Mushroom

The terrapin, the tortoise and the turtle,
The lizard and the axolotl too,
All live together in my garden -
Let me tell you what they do.
Let me tell you what they do.

The terrapin, the tortoise and the turtle
Carry their houses on their back.
They never need accommodation -
Pull your head in and that's that.
Pull your head in and that's that.

The lizard likes to hide in secret places,
Underneath a rock or in a crack.
But yesterday I saw him out there sleeping -
He likes the sun upon his back.
He likes the sun upon his back.

Have you ever heard about the Axolotl?
It looks a little scary but it's tame.
The Axolotl's like a little lizard -
A small pet with a funny name!
A small pet with a funny name!

The terrapin, the tortoise and the turtle,
The lizard and the axolotl too.
They play among the lilies in my garden -
Having fun is what they do.
Having fun is what they do.

The terrapin, the tortoise and the turtle,
The lizard and the axolotl too.
All live together in my garden -
Now I've told you what they do!
Now I've told you what they do!